

70's ROCK REVIVAL TROUBADOUR PROJECT

Scott Patton

(guitar)

An American musician, producer, songwriter, musical director, and band leader, Scott Patton has collaborated on many popular studio recordings and has performed all over the world.

Closely associated with Grammy award winner, Jennifer Nettles, as her longtime musical director/ guitarist as well as band leader, guitarist and backing vocalist for the country supergroup, Sugarland, Scott has also performed with Beyoncé, Rihanna, Lady Gaga, Boyz II Men, Cheap Trick, Kenny Chesney, and Brandy Clark.

Television performances include the Tonight Show with Jay Leno/ Jimmy Fallon, the David Letterman show, Jimmy Kimmel, Conan O'Brien, the Today Show, GMA, Live with Kelly and Ryan, the Kelly Clarkson show, The View, The Talk, Martha Stewart Show, The American Music Awards, The Nobel Peace Prize Ceremony, The ACM's, The CMA's and The Grammy awards, and The White House 4th of July Celebration.

Tim Smith

(bass | vocals)

Tim Smith is a guitarist, bassist, vocalist, songwriter and producer. He's toured and recorded with many well respected artists over the years, including The Producers, Jellyfish, Sheryl Crow, World Party, The Finn Brothers, Sarah McLachlan and Noel Gallagher's High Flying Birds.

As well as an accomplished musician for other artists, Tim has written and recorded his own music, with the Umajets, Indianapolis Jones, and most recently, reunited with Roger Joseph Manning Jr and Eric Dover of Jellyfish to form The Lickerish Quartet.

Television performances include Saturday Night Live (3x), The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and Jimmy Fallon, Connor O'Brian, David Letterman and a guest appearance on the television show One Tree Hill.

Steven Dodd

(vocals)

Steven Dodd is an accomplished vocalist, drummer, and songwriter. Known for his wide-ranging vocal style and dynamic stage presence, Steven began his music career fronting for original and tribute bands. In the early '90s, he formed the original rock band Quixotic, which gained enormous popularity in Washington, D.C. In 2020, Steven began touring nationally as the lead vocalist with Elton Live! The Ultimate Tribute — a band he founded.

BIOs

70's ROCK REVIVAL
TROUBADOUR PROJECT

Eric Baumgartner

(keyboard | vocals)

Eric is based in Atlanta where he is active as a composer, performer, arranger and musical director. He holds degrees from Boston's Berklee College of Music (Bachelor's) and Chicago's DePaul University (Master's).

Eric has dozens of works published by the Hal Leonard Corporation. These include the popular Jazz Piano Basics series and many collections of piano arrangements (Beatles, Adele, Hamilton, etc). Through Hal Leonard, Eric tours as a clinician for piano teachers.

He has presented throughout the U.S. and Canada as well as in England, Germany and Australia. Eric has extensive experience in musical theatre and works regularly with Atlanta's Alliance Theatre. He is also Principal Pianist for the Atlanta Gay Men's Chorus.

Jessie Albright

(vocals | guitar)

Vocalist and guitarist, Jessie Albright is a singer/songwriter with a jazz performance and technical theater background.

Lead vocalist of original rock band, Last Chance Riders, the band released two full length albums produced by award winning producer John Brigrlevich. She currently plays her original music for songwriter festivals and has opened up for acts such as Mothers Finest, Spin Doctors and Randall Bramblett.

Jessie is also an avid supporter of animal rescue benefits such as "Rock for Rescues" and her hometown of Dahlonega GA's own "Bark in the Park" which she has performed at for the past five years.

Her personal project, The Jessie Albright Band, is active in the southeast region and is known for their unique live performances showcasing the powerhouse vocalist's eclectic range of influences.

Paul Barrie

(drums | percussion)

Originally from Coventry, England, Paul is a freelance drummer/educator based in Atlanta, GA. He has been playing professionally for around 35 years and has toured the United States and Europe, most notably with the Atlanta bands Donkey and Cigar Store Indians.

Paul has played on countless recordings spanning many genres. He continues to play live and record with many current artists including Jackson County Line, Chris Stalcup & The Grange, John Austin, Nathan Angelo and John Hopkins of The Zac Brown Band.

Booking Information

Alkahest Artists & Attractions • 888-728-8989

E-mail: info@alkahestartists.net • Website: www.alkahestartists.net

